DEPARTMENT 80 CULINARY DEPARTMENT

Board Members in Charge: J. Harrigan, Chairman; R. Terry
Entries Close: July 27, 2011

RULES:

1. OPEN TO CHAMPAIGN COUNTY RESIDENTS ONLY!
2. Exhibits must be in place by 11:00 A.M. on Saturday, the second day of the Fair.
3. One entry allowed in a class by each person.
4. All entries must have been prepared by the Exhibitor since last year's Fair and never been exhibited. All Exhibitors must purchase an Exhibitor's ticket.
5. Entries must be made in clear glass and new lids on jars.
6. Entries in containers other than those prescribed will receive no recognition by the judge.
7. Exhibitor must bring two (2) jars of all canned goods exhibited; one will be opened and tasted. The Exhibitor may pick up the opened jar following the judging and the other will remain on display. Fillage on jars should be 1/2 inch below top of jar. Fairboard may use culinary items for samples.
8. A) All candy and cookies must be placed on 6" pastry plates, and in plastic zip-lock bags, fastened.
B) Cakes to NOT have to be covered. All cakes must be on some type of base of your choice. Cakes in pans will NOT be accepted.
C) Pie entries may be 8 inch, 9 inch or 10 inch pie pan of your choice. FAIR BOARD NOT RESPONSIBLE for pans, lost, stolen or damaged.
9. Judged by the following score: General Appearance-30%; Flavor-40%; Texture-30%; Total = 100%. The form and color should be as near as possible to that of the fresh article.
10. Exhibitors may pick up 1/2 of their cake after 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, following judging.
11. Due to the lack of space, the committee in charge reserves the right to display only the top three (3) winners.
12. Exhibits must be picked up between 5:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. on Friday, the last day of the Fair. All items left after 6:00 p.m. will become the property of the Fair Board.

DEPARTMENT 95 FLORICULTURE DEPARTMENT

August 5th - 12th, 2011
Champaign County Federation of Garden Clubs
Presents
Open Class

"MELODIES IN THE GARDEN"

Deborah Graham – Chairman – Four Seasons Garden Club
Joyce Brown – Goshen Garden Club & Shirlene Turner – Valley Garden Club

GENERAL RULES:

1. Entries are open to all amateur flower growers and arrangers who reside in Champaign County or Champaign County School Districts. An amateur is defined as anyone who grows plants and/or makes floral designs for pleasure, not for the purpose of livelihood. All exhibitors must purchase an exhibitor's ticket at the Fair Secretary's Office.
2. Exhibitors 18 years old or under as of August 1, 2011, will be classified as junior. The Junior Division will be divided 10 year and under and 11 years and older.
3. All entries shall be officially entered at the "Entry and Classification" table in the Horticulture Building by 11:30 a.m. Wednesday August 10th. Entries are to be in place by that time and remain there until 3:00 p.m. Friday, August 12th. All entries not in place by 11:30 a.m. will not be judged and will be for viewing only.
4. The Champaign County Federation of Garden Clubs will not be responsible for any entries left after 3:00 p.m. on Friday, August 12th.
5. All classes are to be awarded blue ribbons for 1st place, red for 2nd place, white for 3rd place.
6. From the blue ribbon roses in each division, the judge will select one "Queen of Roses". A "Best of Show ribbon will be awarded by the Judge from the blue ribbon winners from each of the following: the Artistic Design Division, the Cut Specimen Division, the Container Grown Plants Division, and the Junior Division.
7. Open oral judging will begin at 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday, August 10th and is open to the public. The Judge will be an accredited Ohio Association of Garden Clubs flower show judge. Judging will be by the rules of the Ohio Association of Garden Clubs' "Handbook for Garden Clubs" and all decisions of the Judge will be final. Any award may be withheld at the discretion of the Judge.
8. Premiums: 1st - $5.00; 2nd - $3.00; 3rd - $2.00.

HORTICULTURE RULES

1. Entries must be grown by the Exhibitor. Potted plants must have been in the possession of the Exhibitor for at least 3 months prior to the show.
2. Entry tags should be labeled with the correct variety names.
3. All specimen blooms are to be disbudded with foliage attached unless stated otherwise in the schedule.
4. Potted plants must be in a container 14 inches or less in diameter with an appropriate size saucer underneath. Specimen containers will be provided at the show.
5. The placement committee and/or the judge reserves the right to combine or subdivide horticultural classes according to the number of entries. The judge will be advised of any such changes.

ARTISTIC RULES

1. Accessory foliage, dried plant material, bases, mats and accessories will be permitted in all classes. All classes must include some live material except where noted in schedule. Fresh flowers, foliage and dried material may be obtained from any source. Dried plant material may be painted or altered in any fashion; however, the painting and coloring of fresh material is not permitted. Artificial or silk material is not permitted in any class.
2. All plant materials along with the class name are to be listed on the front of a 3"x5" card. Exhibitor may also write a brief interpretation of the design on the bottom of the front of the card. The name of the Exhibitor is to be printed on the back. This is in addition to the entry tag.
3. The design in any artistic class MUST be the work of the exhibitor.

DEPARTMENT 100 CHAMPAIGN COUNTY FEDERATION OF GARDEN CLUBS

August 6th, 2011

Champaign County Federation of Garden Clubs
Presents

"MELODIES IN THE GARDEN"

Deborah Graham – Chairman – Four Seasons Garden Club
Joyce Brown ~ Goshen G. C. Shirlene Turner ~ Valley G. C.

GENERAL RULES:

1. Entries are open to all members of any Federated Garden Club in Champaign County. Each Club must purchase an exhibitor's ticket from the Fair Secretary's Office. All exhibitors should be amateur gardeners and arrangers, an amateur being defined as anyone who grows plants and/or makes floral designs for pleasure, not for the purpose of livelihood.
2. Each club must make entries in all 9 Artistic Design classes. New this year in Horticulture, a club can enter every class once. All clubs must enter a minimum of 20 classes, which includes the Division 105 – Class 5 that is a required class for all clubs. Only the top 20 scores for each club in Horticulture will be counted. This total does include the required class score.
3. The Junior Division will be divided as 10 years old and under, and 11 years old thru 18 years old as of August 1st, 2011. Clubs may enter as many of the junior classes as desired.
4. All entries shall be officially entered at the "Entry and Classification" table in the Horticulture Building by 11:30 a.m. Saturday, August 6th, and remain there until 3:00 p.m. Tuesday, August 9th. Entries not meeting requirements will be placed at the discretion of the Flower Show Chairman. Entries are to be staged at the direction of the Placement Committee. All entries not in place by 11:30 a.m. the day of the show will not be judged and will be for viewing only.
5. All classes are to be awarded blue ribbons for 1st place, red for 2nd place, and white for 3rd place. For the Club Sweepstakes the point system is 5 points for blue ribbon earned, 3 points for red, and 1 point for white. Each club will receive points for its placements in its 9 Artistic Design entries, its placements in the 20 Horticulture entries, and 5 points for its junior exhibits regardless of ribbons awarded. From the blue ribbon roses in each division, the judge will select one "Queen of Roses". A "Best of Show" ribbon will be awarded, by the judge from the blue ribbon winners from each of the following: the Artistic Design Division, the Cut Specimen Division, the Container Grown Plants Division and the Junior Division.
Again this year will be a "People's Choice" award given to the favorite artistic adult design. Voting will be by ballot starting after the flower show on Saturday continuing until 5 p.m. the next day. At 5 p.m. on Sunday, the award will given to the "People's Choice".
6. Open oral judging will begin at 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, August 6th. The judge will be an accredited Ohio Association of Garden Clubs flower show judge. Admission to the judging area will be restricted to club members and their immediate families. Judging will be by the rules of the Ohio Association of Garden Clubs "Handbook of Garden Clubs" and all decisions of the judge will be final. Any award may be withheld at the discretion of the judge.

HORTICULTURE RULES:

1. Entries must be grown by an amateur member of the participating club. Potted plants must have been in the possession of the Exhibitor for at least 3 months prior to the show.

2. Entry tags should be labeled with the correct variety names.
3. All specimen blooms are to be disbudded with foliage attached, unless stated otherwise in the schedule.
4. Potted plants must be in a container 14 inches or less in diameter with an appropriate size saucer underneath. Exception being Division 105 – Class 5. See schedule for specific instructions. Specimen containers will be provided at the show.
5. The placement committee and/or the Judge reserves the right to combine or subdivide horticultural classes according to the number of entries. The judge will be advised of any such changes.

ARTISTIC DESIGN RULES:

1. Accessory foliage, dried plant material, bases, mats, and accessories will be permitted in all classes. All classes must include some live material except as noted in schedule. Fresh flowers, foliage and dried material may be obtained from any source. Dried plant material may be painted or altered in any fashion; however, the painting and coloring of fresh material is not permitted. Artificial or silk material is not permitted in any class.
2. In Division 110 – Class 5, the Artistic Special, each club should use a 36"H x 48"W – 3 section folding display board for the Exhibition Table Picture. The Table Picture must be done within the confines of this board. The board may be covered or painted if the designer chooses to do so. The design will be displayed on top of the tables provided at the fair.
3. All plant materials along with the class name are to be listed on the front of a 3x5 card. Exhibitor may also write a brief interpretation of the design at the bottom of the front of the card. The name of the exhibitor along with the Exhibitor's garden club name is to be printed on the back. This is in addition to the entry tag.
4. The design in any artistic class MUST be the work of the exhibitor.

OHIO TOP HANDS RODEO DRILL TEAM

When they come, flags rippling aloft and rhinestones sparkling in the sun, you will know they rule their game by the way they sit. Beautiful young rides on beautiful horses, shining with care and training, easy in their work and happy in their herd, the Ohio Top Hands Rodeo Drill team are champions. The pride of Ohio and the United States Equestrian Drill Association (USEDA), this team of horses and riders have carried the colors of the great state of Ohio and the stars and stripes of The United States of America under the blessings of such organizations as The National Endowment for the Public Trust; Honor Flight; Patriotism in Action; Veterans of Foreign Wars; the Foreign Legion; the USEDA; the PRCA; Equine Affaire; The CanAm; The Kentucky Derby and many more.

Get close enough to read one of the silver trophy buckles and you'll find their last conquest was Texas.

The Ohio Top Hands, ladies and gentlemen, because all of America is the western frontier. It starts at the Atlantic seaboard and there are cowboys in Hawaii. But the Top Hands are in Ohio.

Since 1998 they have entertained for rodeos as far west as Reno, Nevada, horse expos as far east as Truro, Nova Scotia, and parades as far south as Birmingham, Alabama.

They have won such prestigious awards as the United States Equestrian Drill Association "Audience Appeal Award"; the Kentucky Derby Pegasus Parade's "Best Mounted Unit" award, and are the three time champion drill team at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, Kentucky.

The Ohio Top Hands come from all points in the great State of Ohio, from Lebanon, Springboro, Bellbrook, Beavercreek, Chesapeake, Lima, Columbus Grove, Canton and West Union. They ride quarter horses and paint horses, the costume you see is some of the finest western wear available in the world, and perform to customized soundtrack medleys that tell a story like music does, for a movie. These riders are your neighbors, your friends, and ambassadors of your home towns. C'mon up and say hi.

DEMO DERBY

Rules apply before, during & after Derby

Any sedan or wagon '80' newer (call on 77-79 models, No checker cabs). You must have helmet, seatbelt, eye protection and pants at all times. We may reject any/all entries for any reason. Cars may be re-inspected at any time. All rules left out and clarification on calls about car building will be made the day of the event. No refunds. Back to Back Promotions and the Champaign County Fair Board assumes no liability in the result of injury or death. You enter at your own risk.

BUMPERS and BUMPER SHOCKS:

Stock appearing bumpers of any year. Seams may be welded. You can add metal to the back or insides but nothing on the outside of the bumper. All shock tubes and brackets must remain in the stock position and cannot be angled. The shock tubes may be welded solid. Shock tubes may not extend more than 13.5 inches off the bumper. If hard nosed, you must keep all round tubing factory width and cannot be angled. Wire in 2 spots, can go around the bumpers but not in front of the radiator. You also may add one strap 1"x4" each side of the bumper to the frame to help hold on the bumper.

CORE SUPPORT:

It may be welded on the top part only to the fenders on both sides. The core support may have a piece of angle 4"x4" max across the top of the support but can only be 2" longer than the radiator. You can weld 2"x2" tubing vertically between the frame and core support only. Do not run the tubing inside the core support. You may double up the front two mounting holes with a 4"x4" max plate on top of the bracket for strength. Pre-ran car's core supports can be patched and welded back up to hold the radiator, but too much weld and you may have to cut.

HOOD:

Any year stock hood and it must be open for tech. If you do not run a hood, you must have a plastic fan or no fan. Hoods can only be folded one time and it cannot be welded together in any way. All hoods need a 12"x12" hole over car. You may bolt the hood down in four spots with hood hinges and six spots on whole hoods without hinges and they must be spaced out evenly on the hood. All washers and angles used for the hoods are a 4" max.

BODY BOLTS/MOUNTS:

Bolt max size 1", washer max size 4". All bolts must start up in factory position. Mounts can be changed to a hockey puck type set up. A 1" gap is required. The front two core support mounts can be altered with 1" all-thread, all other mounts must remain stock. No moving mounts. Rusted mount holes can be repaired with store bought washers welded into two mounts (max no home made washers). Do not paint anything you fix. We may ask you to remove a body mount to make sure they are not all welded to the frame or body, and if so, you lose.

FRAME:

You may weld the top frame seams from the front of the A-arms forward on Chrysler and Fords. The front frame rails may be shortened on Fords but must be at least 27 inches long from the front edge of the coil spring hole. (? Call). GM's you may weld the top seams from the firewall forward (1/2 wide max bead on all cars). You may also swap frames but it must Ford to Ford, GM to GM, etc., with all frames 80 or newer. Rust repair will be limited to one spot per frame. Bad frames can be clipped (call on wrecked frames). You can weld up to 6" of missed frame seams MAX per frame. You may pitch the front of the frame by cutting and re-welding the box seams on the side closest to the transmission only and it must be put back factory. Any over welding and you will cut it or load it. Pre-rans: with damage can be repaired with the 4- 3"x3"x1/4" thick plates where we allow you to use them. These plates are not just to make the crush box and hump plates stronger. If we feel there is no damage to these spots. You will cut them off. You may have a rear hump plate straight across or contour to the frame, your choice. Straight across hump plates must be kept above the rear end. The plate cannot hold the rear end down in any way. Max size plate 22"x6"x1/4" dead center on the outside part of your humps. Also, cars can use the stock Ford HD gussets pre-2002 and must be welded in like it came from the factory. Notching/pre-bending rear frame is allowed, do not paint, hot tank or sand blast the frame. We want to see all the weld burns. If frame is painted, you will load it. DO NOT load, plate, pin the rails, humps, boxes in any way. If done, you will not be invited back.

BODY:

No doubling of the body panels. All doors, trunk lids, tail gates may be welded shut with 3" max plates 1/4" thick. Plates cannot overlap or hide other plates. All door window frames and back side of trunks can be 6" weld 6" not. The speaker tray must stay in the original position, it cannot be moved forward. Trunk lids may have some movement (2" to 3" max) at the top but must be kept in the rain channels on the sides. Trunk lids cannot be welded to the wheel tubs, the bottom of the speaker decks or the back two pillars in any way. Trunks and speaker decks cannot lay on the floor, they must be at least 6" from bottom of speaker well. Every trunk lid must have 12"x6" hole in it. (No extra welding on trunks). Trunk lids may have 1" all-thread from the center of the floor pan at least 4" away from the rails through the trunk straight up and down (2 spots). The bottom/back part of the trunk may be put down inside of the trunk and welded in three spots that are 6" long to the floor pan only. You can add 3 bolts per wheel well. Do not cover up any tail light holes or have any extra body seam welding on the inside of the trunk/car. Tail gates can be cut down. Tucking wagons please call. Front window bar is mandatory. You must run either 9 wire or strapping in the front window to protect the hood from coming into the car. Rear window protection is permissible. Front and rear window bars may be a single strap 1/4" x 3" max. They must stay in the window area. The front bar cannot touch or mount behind the distributor protector. The rear bar may have 1" (max) of strap on the roof and trunk lid only. All body sheet metal patching on pre-ran cars should be held to a max of 4 spots. (12"x12") This should be just for repair work that is held to a minimum. Call with questions.

ENGINE:

Any type motor. You may use a distributor protector. It cannot be connected to the header brackets or go around the sides of the engine. The protector no wider than the intake and it must stay on top and the back side of the motor. You may use a front motor plate in place of your old brackets but it cannot protect anything on the front of the engine. To prevent broken blocks, you may use after market bracket/bells to help the motor block only, not to make the car stronger. If you use any non-factory brackets (clam shells, distributor protectors, etc.) on the motor, you cannot use motor chains/straps at all. If you leave all brackets as factory, then you may use 2-3/8 chain from the front of the motor to the top of the frame rails in front of A-arms (1-link to 1-link). If you have broken block or damaged mounting holes, call for special arrangements. You will have to provide proof of the damage (picture, call, etc.) You must run the factory style rubber motor mounts on the frame. Judges decision final on all engine parts. Cross member brackets (5" max angles) must be welded on the inside side rails only and cannot be close to the crush box.

REAR-END:

Any type of rear-end. You must use coil springs (NO tubing). The control arms can be modified up to a 2" max and must be mounted into the stock position. If putting an old style rear-end under a newer model, do not move the brackets to make the car stronger. Do not attach the lower bracket to the center package tray. The only welding you can do is just enough for the 4 rear-end brackets. If we feel the brackets are welded in a way that makes the car stronger, you will cut. You may use a rear-end protector. The protector cannot help the frame or be very wide, just a few inches past the tubes. If it is too big, you will cut it off. The rear shocks can be replaced with 1" all-thread. The all-thread can stay in the stock position or mounted inside the coil spring pocket and extend inside the body to be used as two body bolts. Cars with leaf springs must be stock length and thickness and kept in the stock position under the rear-end. Five springs max and the main with a 2" stair step front and rear. You are allowed four clamps per side. No double mains, upside down springs, flat springs, welding the springs together or duct taping the springs. No coil to leaf spring setups (? Call).

CAGE:

4 point cage (4" x 6" max cage bars). All bars must be sheet metal to sheet metal. The bar behind the seat can sit no further back where the kick panel meets the bench seat. The front bar has to be a mandatory 5" from the center of the firewall/distributor and must go over or under the steering column. Side bars may be inside the car or in the doors. Side bars cannot go past the firewall or connect to any kind of strapping or tubing behind the fenders, except the dash bar. All of the cage bars must be at least 6" off the floor. The tank protector must come off the back bar and only be 24 inches wide (outside to outside). The gas tank can sit on top of the protector or down inside the protector. The protector may go against the back rest sheet metal but cannot be welded or bolted to it. The protector must be a floating set up. No down legs off the protector in any way. The halo bar/roll over bar cannot be angled. It must be straight across the roof and only bolted in three places. It must touch/tie into the back seat bar. It may go down to the top of the STRAIGHT part of the frame rails. It cannot be connected to any body mount in any way. (3" x 3" max welding on the top frame rails) *Note: The kicker from the dash bar to the dist.-protector/block is not allowed.

GAS TANKS/BATTERY BOX, TRANS, and OIL COOLERS:

(Gas tank boxes call). Thin metal boxes with gas tanks inside can sit on top of or inside the tank protector. (Small cars with no tunnel tanks) boat/Dec. type gas tanks only. Batteries must be moved to passenger side floor board. All battery boxes, transmission brackets and transmission and oil coolers can be used but cannot strengthen the car in any way or will be taken off. All judges decision final.

TIRES & MISC.:

Any Car, Truck or Forklift tire. No studs or wheel weights. Tires may be foam filled or doubled. You may use valve stem protectors. All tie rods and control arms may be modified but must be used and work as a stock part. Upper A-arms can be welded down with 2" welds on both sides of the A-arm and plug welded in the center (2" plug max, welds only, no adding of any metal). No ball joint protectors will be permitted. You can change out the upper A-arms. (? Call). Built cars can sit no lower than 17" from the bottom of the back bumper. Front bumpers can be no higher than 22" from the bottom of the front bumper. If bumper is put on (modified) in a way to make the car sit lower, we will have to measure off the back/bottom side of the frame rails. Do not weld the front sway bar to the frame or the lower A-arms. Sway bar components can be changed out. You CANNOT change out the front shocks for all-thread, they must stay a factory type shock. 2003 and newer models (call with engine mounting questions). You cannot change out the engine cradle on these cars.

SMALL CARS:

No hump plates or coil to leaf spring setups, no ¾" ton rear-ends. Seam welding is allowed from front A-arms forward on the TOP side only. (1/2 max weld). Bumpers can sit on top of the rear shock tubes. FWD cars can use 2" tubing for rear coil springs. Cars must use key/safety switch for electric fuel pumps. All other big car rules apply. (If not sure you can do it, call?).
